

SAVOURY FACILITY NANTONG, CHINA FACTS

Site information	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• World-class savoury flavours and snack seasoning manufacturing facility situated in Nantong, Jiangsu Province China• CHF 50 million (RMB 335 million) investment – Givaudan's largest investment in China since 2006• Givaudan's first flavours site outside Shanghai• Ground breaking in April 2013 and planned opening in 2015• Expected to employ around 100 people
Manufacturing and warehouse capabilities	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Savoury focus with world-class manufacturing technologies and equipment• Main Technologies: Powder Blending, Process Flavours, Spray Drying• Thousands of Products, Intermediates and Raw Materials• Quality certifications: ISO 9001, FSSC 22000, AIB• Adherence to strictest allergen management principles• Following latest China codes for Food Hygiene
Givaudan in China	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Entered the China market in 1988 currently the leading fragrances and flavours house in China, serving global, regional and local customers• Number of employees: over 500• Givaudan's other production sites in China:<ul style="list-style-type: none">- a flavours site at Jinqiao Export Processing Zone, Shanghai- a fragrances site at Zhangjiang High-Tech Park, Shanghai- a speciality products site at Songjiang Industry Zone, Shanghai
Givaudan Flavour Division	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Trusted partner to the world's leading food and beverage companies• 40% of flavourists and flavour food scientists worldwide work for Givaudan• Over 150 dedicated taste research staff• 2012 sales of CHF 2,236 million• The Flavour Division represented 53% of 2012 sales
Givaudan	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Givaudan is market leader in the global fragrance and flavour industry• Head office in Switzerland• More than 9,000 employees• Subsidiaries and branches in more than 40 countries
