

Biography

Willem Mutsaerts

Head of Global Procurement

Joined in 1989

Born in 1962

Dutch national

Background

Willem joined Givaudan in 1989, initially with responsibility for sales in Benelux, then moving on to become Regional Account Manager for the APAC region in Singapore before being appointed Head of Global Purchasing for Fragrances.

In 2001, he took commercial responsibility for Fragrance consumer products in the EAME region. Willem has been based in Geneva since 2007 as Head of Global Operations Fragrances.

He was appointed Head of Global Procurement and a member of the Executive Committee in October 2015.

Willem has a degree in international marketing from the University of Breda, the Netherlands, and is the holder of an MBA obtained at Golden Gate University in Singapore.